

DANIELA MUSINI

Daniela Musini was born in Roseto degli Abruzzi and lives in Pescara.

She has a diploma as piano player, she graduated in languages and foreign literatures and in modern liberal arts, she plays the piano and is also a theatrical author, actress and writer (The 100 pleasures of D'Annunzio, Lucrezia Borgia - Mysteries, intrigues and crimes, are two biographies both published by Stampa Alternativa / Nuovi Equilibri).

With her theatrical work My Divine Eleanor ( Ianieri Publishing ) she collected three prestigious prizes:

Bronze medal at the 2003 Florence Award
First Place at the 2004 Turin "Garcia Lorca" Award
2008 Sarah Ferrati Cup for Theater Authors.

But above all she is an acclaimed scholar of Gabriel d'Annunzio and because of her quality as a d'Annunzio expert, she was awarded the International Prize *Adelaide Ristori at Campidoglio in Rome, this award is conferred every year to only 50 women in the whole world, who distinguished themselves for artistic and cultural merits.

She was also awarded the International Prize 2008 *Woman of the Year for Culture at Congress Palace of Lugano.

She is touring around the world in the triple character of author / actress / pianist (each time adapting her repertory to the hosting country), with three plays that have gained enthusiastic approval: "Homage to the Imaginifico", where she recites the most quivering and evocative pages of the Poet's repertory, "Gabriel d'Annunzio's love and splendor", where she plays the role of the seven most loved women of the Poet, inspiring

Muses of his incomparable Art, and Eleanor Duse. The Divine, where she plays the role of this great Actress.

At the moment, the Italian Cultural Institutes of Istanbul, Berlin, Ankara, Kyoto, Warsaw, Köln, Saint Petersburg, Lyon ( where she performed Entirely in the French language ), the Italian Embassies of Cuba and Minsk are the prestigious stages of a cultural path aimed at divulging and revealing the figures of Gabriel D'Annunzio and Eleanor Duse all over the world.
